

Chef AL's Bio

Al's career in food service began in Omaha, NE where he trained under a cordon bleu chef. In his 40-year career, he catered meals to many class of people, from Presidents, governors, movie stars and families. His career moved to KC where he continued creating delicious meals and honed in on his homemade sauces. He is semi-retired living in Bella Vista but still loves to smoke ribs and salmon and make his sauces and likes to see people enjoying good meals.
